Foreign Office

February 2nd, 1918.

Gentlemen:-

I have laid before The King the Address which you were so good as to submit regarding the recognition of the independence of Finland, and I am commanded by His Majesty to assure you, in reply of his confidence that the aspirations of Finland will receive the most sympathetic consideration at the hands of His Majesty's Government.

I am,

Gentlemen,

Your most obedient,

humble Servant,

Eng, Wolff, Esq.,
L. Kihlman, Esq.,
R. Holsti, Esq.,
